THE Repository, Cleveland Herald and other Hayes papers are trying to explain away the fact, the damaging fact, that Governor Hayes hastily ordered military companies to the neighborhood of Massillon. Before the military came no attempt had been made to enforce the law, or make arrests under the ordinary civil process. Governor Hayes cannot escape from this dilemma-cannot dodge the responsibility. The entire responsibility lies with him and the labors of the Repository and Herald give abundant evidence that they view the affair in the same light. These journals cannot throw it on to Sheriff Rauch, and shall not. We regretted at the time, and do still, the great weakness of Governor Hayes in so readily resorting to military force in a time of peace. It was in all respects unfortunate.

THE Cleveland Herald, Repository, and that ilk, howl horribly over the Hamburg affair in South Carolina, in which several negroes were killed, but think it was all right for Governor Hayes to send troops to our valleys to make arrests, in doing which a mi ner, an innocent man, was shot down near his own door! Don't circum. stances alter cases though?

TILDEN AND HENDRICKS IN NEW YORK CITY.

A rousing Tilden and Hendricks ratification meeting was held in New York city on Thursday evening last, at Tammany hall. Mr. Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, presided, and made a rattling and effective speech. A series of excellent resolutions were adopted, after which Congressman John Hancock, of Texas made an able address. Ex-Governor Walker, of Virginia, followed in one of his finest efforts. Congressman Charles E. Hooker, of Mississippi, and John K. Tarbox, of Massachusetts, and many other gentlemen at the outside stands, addressed the immense growd .-The meeting was a grand success. The ball of Reform moves on.

The Republican journals have just discovered that Governor Tilden was a Credit Mobilierite. It is a new discovery. Nothing of the kind was found out a few years ago when the matter was being investigated in Congress. But they say Mr. Tilden was employed as a lawyer for the Credit Mobilier company of Pennsylvania. This may be true and perfectly legitimate. The corruption and infamy connected with the name was the villainy perpetrated by members of Congress, high in position, in defrauding the United States government out of millions. All this was done by act of ongress-members voting millions into THEIR OWN POCKETS. In this business were implicated such men as Oakes Ames, Rev. Gen. Garfield, Schuyler Colfax and others. How Samuel J. Tilden can be any way responsible for this Congressional villainy we cannot understand. He was not in Congress; nor even lobbying about Washington. Of course it is a vile canard so far as implicating Mr. Tilden in any wrong.

Ex-Governor Curtin denies the statement going the rounds of the Republican ournals, that he is for Hayes. Mr. Curtin is for Tilden.
